Mr. Chow, Miami

Tucked in the W South Beach, the latest branch of Mr. Chow is certain to be as much of a hot spot as its predecessors in New York, London, and Los Angeles. The restaurant's elegant Chinese menu will include new dishes as well as the signature fare that Mr. Chow habitués love. The star of the glamorous decor is a 123-foot-long light fixture, adorned with gold leaf and Swarovski crystals.
